They are recruiting for all aspects of the press, from on-scene reporting to behind-the-scenes production. Review the many types of journalism jobs in this lesson and select the one you want most. Want a journalism position that is not listed in the lesson? Contact your editor to discuss your idea before proceeding. There are three steps to this assignment.

Step 1: Select a job and publication. Select a journalism job you learned about in the lesson and a Goldbrooke High publication you would like to apply for. The following Goldbrooke High publications are hiring:

Step 2: Craft a properly formatted cover letter to your editor conveying your interest in the job, your understanding of the role, and the skills you possess that make you think you're the perfect fit. Your cover letter should be properly and professionally formatted. Your structure should include:

- An introductory paragraph. Explain the reason for your letter. Be specific about which news source you want to work with and the specific role you'd like to fill. Your reader should be aware of precisely what your purpose is after reading this section.
- A body paragraph. Summarize the reasons you're the perfect person for the job. Explain your understanding of at least three requirements of your selected journalism job and how you are prepared to meet them.
