A Major Victory for Gay Rights Activists in America

Indentation (press TAB once)

Last week, on June 26, 2015, the Supreme Court of the United States ruled that all 50 states in the country must allow same-sex marriage. It was a major victory for the gay citizens who wish to wed others of the same gender. An article on cnn.com, "Supreme Court rules in favor of same-sex marriage nationwide," written by Ariane de Vogue and Jeremy Diamond, had much to say about this historic ruling, which has set a precedent in the world.

Indentation

In the 5-4 ruling, Justice Anthony Kennedy, who wrote for the majority with the four liberal justices, said "no union is more profound than marriage, for it embodies the highest ideals of love, fidelity, devotion, sacrifice and family." Kennedy continued to say, "In forming a marital union, two people become something greater than they once were. ... Their hope is not to be condemned to live in loneliness, excluded from one of civilization's oldest institutions. They ask for equal dignity in the eyes of the law. The Constitution grants them that right." (De Vogue and Diamond).

Kennedy also wrote that same-sex couples should be able to use their right to marry in all states. This day marks a victory for homosexuals all over the world, not just in America. This ruling makes America the 21st country to legalize same-sex marriage nationwide, including its territories, such as Guam and Puerto Rico. Gay couples will now have the same exact legal rights, as well as the benefits that straight couples have shared for as long as the country has existed.
