States of Violence Austin Sarat, Jennifer L. Culbert, 2009-04-27 This book brings together scholarship on three different forms of state violence examining each for what it can tell us about the conditions under which states use violence and the significance of violence to our understanding of states This book calls into question the legitimacy of state uses of violence and mounts a sustained effort at interpretation sense making and critique It suggests that condemning the state s decisions to use lethal force is not a simple matter of abolishing the death penalty or to take another exemplary example of the killing state demanding that the state engage only in just publicly declared and justified wars pointing out that even such overt instances of lethal force are more elusive as targets of critique than one might think Indeed altering such decisions may do little to change the essential relationship of the state to violence

George Crabbe and His Times, 1754-1832 René Louis Huchon, 1907 Victor Hugo's Les Misérables and the Novels of the Grotesque Karen Masters-Wicks, 1994 This important study focuses on the novels of Victor Hugo one of the most well known French authors of the nineteenth century Through close readings of his most celebrated narratives Les Misérables and Notre Dame de Paris his juvenilia Han d Islande Bug Jargal and Le Dernier jour d un condemn and his later fiction Les Travailleurs de la mer L Homme qui rit and Quatrevingt treize the author breaks new ground in her elaboration of the problem of the grotesque esthetic between Hugo s novels and his romantic manifesto of 1827 the Pr face de Cromwell in which he argues for inclusion of the grotesque as an esthetic part of the new romantic drama This modern esthetic of contrast thus becomes the point of departure from which his narrative springs It is the cornerstone of the differentiation between romantic and classical literature Hugo takes as his starting point the breakdown of all esthetic codes and creates a new framework for reading literature that is a romanticism of overcodified deformations

Charles Dickens Michael Hollington, 1995 Charles Dickens s A Tale of Two Cities 1859 is often criticized for its melodramatic soap opera plot yet his bold treatment of the violence and terrors of the French Revolution is still widely read and enjoyed today More complex than it first appears A Tale of Two Cities demonstrates Dickens s profound understanding of human nature exemplified in mob behavior implacable hatred and powerful enduring love
