The Fundamental Role of Teletraffic in the Evolution of Telecommunications Networks J. Labetoulle, J.W.

Roberts, 2013-10-22 The International Teletraffic Congress ITC is a recognized international organization taking part in the work of the International Telecommunications Union. The congress traditionally deals with the development of teletraffic theory and its applications to the design, planning and operation of telecommunication systems, networks and services. The contents of ITC 14 illustrate the important role of teletraffic in the current period of rapid evolution of telecommunication networks. A large number of papers address the teletraffic issues behind developments in broadband communications and ATM technology. The extension of possibilities for user mobility and personal communications together with the generalization of common channel signalling and the provision of new intelligent network services are further extremely significant developments whose teletraffic implications are explored in a number of contributions. ITC 14 also addresses traditional teletraffic subjects proposing enhancements to traffic engineering practices for existing circuit and packet switched telecommunications networks and making valuable original contributions to the fundamental mathematical tools on which teletraffic theory is based. The contents of these Proceedings accurately reflect the extremely wide scope of the ITC, extending from basic mathematical theory to day to day traffic engineering practices and constitute the state of the art in 1994 of one of the fundamental telecommunications sciences.

Bone Fae Myenne Ng, 2015-11-03 Ng raises the stakes for Asian American literature and makes a bid for the arrival of a major American voice. Bone is a pioneer work. San Francisco Bay Guardian. We were a family of three girls. By Chinese standards that wasn't lucky. In Chinatown everyone knew our story. Outsiders jerked their chins, looked at us, shook their heads. We heard things. In this profoundly moving novel Fae Myenne Ng takes readers into the hidden heart of San Francisco's Chinatown to the world of one family's honor, their secrets and the lost bones of a paper father. Two generations of the Leong family live in an uneasy tension as they try to fathom the source of a brave young girl's sorrow. Oldest daughter Leila tells the story of her sister Ona who has ended her young, conflicted life by jumping from the roof of a Chinatown housing project of her mother Mah, a seamstress in a garment shop run by a Chinese. Elvis of Leon, her father, a merchant seaman who ships out frequently, and the family's youngest Nina who has escaped to New York by working as a flight attendant. With Ona and Nina gone, it is up to Leila to lay the bones of the family's collective guilt to rest and find some way to hope again. Fae Myenne Ng's luminous debut explores what it means to be a stranger in one's own family, a foreigner in one's own neighborhood and whether it's possible to love a place that may never feel quite like home. An incantatory first novel. Ms Ng is blessed with a poet's gift for metaphor and a reporter's eye for detail. Michiko Kakutani, The New York Times.
