Who Gets In? Rebecca Zwick,2017-05-15 On the disputed topic of U S college admissions everyone agrees that this high stakes competition is unfair But few agree on what a fair process would be Stressing transparency in evaluating applicants Rebecca Zwick assesses the goals and criteria of different admissions policies and shows how they can fail to produce the desired results

Assessing Contexts of Learning Susanne Kuger,Eckhard Klieme,Nina Jude,David Kaplan,2016-12-05 This volume brings together educational effectiveness research and international large scale assessments demonstrating how the two fields can be applied to inspire and improve each other and providing readers direct links to instruments that cover a broad range of topics and have been shown to work in more than 70 countries The book s initial chapters introduce and summarize recent discussions and developments in the conceptualization implementation and evaluation of international large scale context assessments and provide an outlook on possible future developments Subsequently three thematic sections Student Background Outcomes of Education Beyond Achievement and Learning in Schools each present a series of chapters that provide the conceptual background for a wide range of important topics in education research policy and practice Each chapter defines a conceptual framework that relates recent findings in the educational effectiveness research literature to current issues in education policy and practice These frameworks were used to develop interesting and relevant indicators that may be used for meaningful reporting from international assessments other cross cultural research or national studies Using the example of one particular survey the Programme for International Student Assessment PISA 2015 this volume links all theoretical considerations to fully developed questionnaire material that was field trailed and evaluated in questionnaires for students and their parents as well as teachers and principals in their schools The primary purposes of this book are to inform readers about how education effectiveness research and international large scale assessments are already interacting to inform research and policymaking to identify areas where a closer collaboration of both fields or input from other areas could further improve this work to provide sound theoretical frameworks for future work in both fields and finally to relate these theoretical debates to currently available and evaluated material for future context assessments

The Poisoning of the American Mind Lawrence M. Eppard, Jacob L. Mackey, Lee Jussim, 2024-09-25 What would you have to believe in order to dress up as a shaman paint your face and storm the U S Capitol What could possibly lead somebody to claim that it upholds white supremacy to encourage hard work self reliance rational thinking punctuality and politeness Such behaviors would have been unimaginable only a few years ago And yet here we are witnessing millions of people across the political spectrum displaying these clear indications of an epistemically poisoned mind Both red America and blue America are retreating into their own information bubbles seceding from a common reality Both consume far too much misinformation and disinformation developing worldviews that can sometimes be unintelligible to others This book explores these disturbing developments and what they mean for our society and implores us all to recover a shared sense of what is true
