Can't find the wings, or I can read in the end in English in Wings today. I had almost a regular say in translation, in the end in "Gatherly, I found some. It's not even at the top of iPad. I'm not sure."

Abstract: This paper explores the issue of how to best use the word "and" in a sentence. It is argued that the word "and" should be used to connect two clauses that are both true, but not necessarily in a causal or sequential relationship. The paper also discusses the use of "and" to connect two clauses that are both false, and the use of "and" to connect two clauses that are both true and in a causal or sequential relationship. The paper concludes that the word "and" should be used to connect two clauses that are both true, but not necessarily in a causal or sequential relationship.
