Ks1 Writing Level Thresholds 2007:

Evidence Check 1 Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons. Select Committee on Science and Technology, 2009 This report HCP 44 session 2009 10 ISBN 9780215542663 from the Science and Technology Committee looks at literacy programmes evidence check and concludes that expectations by the Department for Children Schools and Families of the quality of the evidence base for reading programmes are worryingly low It urges the Government to commission randomised controlled trials RCTs The Committee also states it is particularly concerned about the quality of evidence demonstrating cost effectiveness of different programmes and further recommends that the Government reviews its guidelines on RCT design it says even Wikipedia is more thorough and informative The Committee also concludes that the Government's focus on early literacy interventions and phonics based teaching is based on the best available evidence the use of Reading Recovery is based on a lower quality of evidence than the Committee is comfortable with and that the decision to introduce Reading Recovery nationally is not evidence based The Committee further expressed alarm that there was a complete lack of randomised controlled trials using standardised test scores for the Reading Recovery programme in the UK school system before national implementation of the programme Parliamentary Debates (Hansard). Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons, 2010

Special Educational Needs and Disabilities in Schools Janice Wearmouth, 2017-04-20 Special Educational Needs and Disabilities in Schools is a key resource in supporting student teachers during and beyond their teaching training to begin to understand how and be able to address the needs of children and young people within schools and college in line with the Code of Practice DfE 2014 Drawing on her wealth of experience and up to date theory Janice Wearmouth explores current legislation related to special educational needs and disability SEND within a historical and geographical context so that readers can understand how and why the current SEND policy and practice has developed as it has She considers assessment and planning in relation to both informal and standardised approaches and offers ways to engage with young people's peers and families views and experiences Wearmouth focuses on ways to understand assess and address the most common forms of SEND literacy and numeracy difficulties and behavioural concerns related to social emotional and mental health She discusses how ICT might be used to include young people with various degrees of difficulty in learning and explores professional relationships and partnership work with parents and families Throughout this engaging guide readers are supported with clear questions of focus for each chapter and within each chapter exemplars and vignettes and reflective and discussion activities for individuals and groups can be found to enable them to consider their own practice to ensure that all young people can learn effectively in their classrooms The supportive companion website provides a wealth of further reading resources
