

POLICE OFFICER BIOGRAPHY EXAMPLES

Officer Keane Reeves has been serving the ninth district of the city of Warhol in the state of Georgia for over ten years. He was first inspired to become a police officer after witnessing two officers beating a suspect that they had just arrested, simply out of spite for having caught him. Officer Reeves was just a child at the time, but he vowed to become a police officer that would be able to reshape the department and bring true justice. His biggest inspiration was his mother, who encouraged him to be a protector of the people, rather than protecting himself from the people.

A graduate of Percy High School in Warhol, Officer Reeves is a native to Georgia and the Warhol area. After graduating high school, Officer Reeves obtained an associate's degree in Paralegal Studies from Roanoke County Community College. He worked for two years as an assistant to a criminal lawyer, hoping to gain knowledge about the legal system. He left his position in 2004, disturbed at the amount of injustice he had observed in his work. He joined the ninth district city police later that year, and demonstrated himself to be a calm and fair officer who was trusted by the community.

In 2015, he was promoted to Deputy, and he began to make changes in the structure of the police department. He implemented the use of body cameras for all officers, and insisted on accompanying a random officer each night on making rounds across the city. During his tenure as deputy, the number of complaints received about police conduct have dropped by half. Officer Reeves is currently working on an outreach mission to unite the community and police officers in informal discussions, in order to restore trust in law enforcement over recent tensions in the community.

Bringing together historians political scientists and literary analysts this volume shows how biographical narratives can shed light on alternative little known or under researched aspects of state power in African politics Part 1 shows how biographical narratives breathe new life into subjects who upon decolonization had been reduced to silence women workers and radical politicians The contributors analyze the complex relationship between biographical narratives and power questioning either the power of biographical codes peculiar to western colonial origins or the power to shape public memory Part 2 reflects on the act of auto biography writing as an exercise of power one that blurs the lines between truth and invention Auto biographical narratives appear as politicized ambiguous stories Part 3 focuses on female leadership during and after colonization exploring on how women gained lost or reinvented power Brought together the contributions of this volume show that the function of biographical narratives should no longer oscillate between romanticized narratives and historical evidence their varied formats all offer fruitful opportunities for a multidisciplinary dialogue This book will be of interest to scholars from various disciplinary backgrounds working on the African postcolonial state the decolonization process women s and gender studies and biography writing      Routledge International Handbook of Police Ethnography Jenny Fleming, Sarah Charman, 2023-01-31 Ethnography has a long history in the humanities and social sciences and has provided the base line in the field of police studies for over 60 years We have recently witnessed a resurgence in ethnographic practice among police scholars and this Handbook is a response to that revival Students and academics are returning to the ethnography arena and the study of police in situ to explain the evocative worlds of the police The list of ethnographic sites is vast and all have fed the rejuvenation of ethnographic endeavour Together they suggest innovation theoretical depth broad geographical boundaries multi site experiments and multi disciplinarity all of which are central to the exploration of police and policing in the twenty first century This Handbook encapsulates the revival of police ethnography by exploring its multidisciplinary field and cataloguing the ongoing ethnographic work It offers an original and international contribution to the field of police studies and research methods providing a comprehensive and overarching guide to police ethnography We see the previous classics in every page and still note the influence of the early ethnographers At the same time we see the innovative breadth and diversity of these narratives The aim of this Handbook is to highlight the mosaic that is police ethnography at a point in time and note with pleasure its contribution to the field once more Ethnography may be messy difficult and at times uncooperative but its results offer a unique insight into the perspectives of people and organisations that can hide in plain sight An accessible and compelling read this Handbook will provide a sound and essential reference source for academics researchers students and practitioners engaged in police and criminal justice studies      The Cowboy Capitalist Charles van Onselen, 2018-04-20 The Jameson Raid was a pivotal moment in the history of South Africa linking events from the Anglo Boer War to the declaration of the Union of South Africa in 1910 For more than a century the failed revolution has been interpreted through the lens of British imperialism with responsibility laid at the feet of Cecil Rhodes Yet the raid was less a serious attempt to overthrow a Boer government than a wild adventure with transnational roots in American filibustering In The Cowboy Capitalist renowned South African historian Charles van Onselen challenges a historiography of over 120 years locating the raid in American rather than British history and forcing us to rethink the histories of at least three nations Through a close look at the little remembered figure of John Hays Hammond a confidant of both Rhodes and Jameson he discovers the American Old West on the South African Highveld This radical reinterpretation challenges the commonly held belief that the Jameson Raid was quintessentially British and in doing so drives splinters into our understanding of events as far forward as South Africa's critical 1948 general election with which the foundations of Grand Apartheid were laid The Politics of Black Hair Online Coursebook Donna Kakonge, PhD Student, 2011-07-05 This is an example of Donna Kakonge's online teaching work Law Enforcement Employment Guide Ron Stern, 1990-06 Radicalization Melissa Dearey, 2009-12-04 Expanding the influence of auto biography studies into cultural criminology Radicalization The Life Writings of Political Prisoners addresses the origins processes and cultures of terrorist criminality and political resistance in a globalized world Criminologists and penologists have long been aware of the sheer volume of autobiography emerging from our prisons Political prisoners POWs freedom fighters and terrorists have been consistently and strongly represented in this corpus of work including such authors as Bobby Sands Wole Soyinka Nelson Mandela Moazzam Begg Ngugi wa Thiong'o Angela Davis George Jackson and Aung San Suu Kyi among others For many of those who have been detained for ostensibly politically motivated crimes life writing has proven to be indispensable in explaining the causes and processes which account for their situation Embedded with these life writings are narratives of radicalization or resistance Melissa Dearey here undertakes an international and comparative analysis of such narratives where the life story is considered as a mode of expressing and transmitting radical cultural values Autobiography John Stuart Mill, 1909 Companion to Women's Historical Writing M.
