Agricultural Law and Economics in Sub-Saharan Africa Frederick Owusu Boadu, 2016-04-27 Agricultural Law in Sub-Saharan Africa: Cases and Comments introduces the subject of agricultural law and economics to researchers, practitioners and students in common law countries in Sub-Saharan Africa and presents information from the legal system in Botswana, Gambia, Ghana, Lesotho, Malawi, Nigeria, Sierra Leone, South Africa, Swaziland, Tanzania, Zambia and Zimbabwe. The law and economics approach entails the use of quantitative methods in research. This is consistent with the expectations in an applied economics field such as agricultural economics. Covering the general traditional law topics in contracts, torts and property, the book goes further to introduce cutting edge and region relevant topics including contracts with illiterate parties, contract farming, climate change and transboundary water issues. The book is supported by an extensive list of reference materials as well as study and enrichment exercises to deepen readers' understanding of the principles discussed in the book. It is a learning tool first and foremost and can be used as a stand alone resource to teach the subject matter of agricultural law and economics to professionals new to the subject area as well as to students in law school, agricultural economics, economics and inter disciplinary classes. Offers research findings on such topics as food safety, climate change, transboundary natural resources, international sale of goods, patents and trademarks to highlight the future sources of pressure on the agriculture industry. Uses case studies to provide real world insights into the challenges and considerations of appropriate agricultural law development. Challenges readers to carry out their own research in their areas of study and to gain some understanding of the relationship between law, economics and statistics. Includes extensive resources such as chapter summaries, study questions and challenge questions at the end of each chapter to assist instructors and students in gaining full benefits from using the book. Provides separate instructor and student study guides, a test bank and test bank answers in hardcopy and electronic formats.

Language of Instruction and Cognitive Development Anja Langer, 2013 Malawi's recent education statistics show that a high percentage of pupils do not achieve their study goals and subsequently drop out of school. This study examines the underlying reasons, yet the main focus rests on the language of instruction. Learners in three different language areas in Malawi participated in a picture based test to find out whether the development of problem oriented logical thinking is influenced by the instruction in the mother tongue in early primary school. Answers are offered with the help of tests and observations during the tests as well as interviews with teachers, parents and decision makers.

Series: Beiträge zur Afrikanistik Contributions to African Studies Vol 21      Gender and Primary Schooling in Malawi Esme C. Kadzamira, Mike Chibwana, 2000      International Encyclopedia of National Systems of Education T. Neville Postlethwaite, 1995. Arranged alphabetically, this book draws upon articles in The International Encyclopedia of Education Second Edition and contains 152 articles on national systems of education. It provides general background information such as geographical, social structure, economic factors, references and further reading, an author index and more.      Knowledge and Policy Formulation Esme C. Kadzamira, 1997      Space: Fostering African Societies Annette Froehlich, 2019-12-24. This book provides detailed insights into how space and its applications are and can be used to support the development of the full range and diversity of African societies as encapsulated in the African Union's Agenda 2063. Like previous books in the Southern Space Studies series, it focuses on the role of space in supporting the UN Sustainable Development Goals in Africa, but it covers an even more extensive array of relevant and timely topics addressing all facets of African development. It demonstrates that while great achievements have been made in recent years in terms of economic and social development, which has lifted many of Africa's people out of poverty, there is still much that needs to be done to fulfill the basic needs of Africa's citizens and afford them the dignity they deserve. To this end, space is already being employed in diverse fields of human endeavor to serve Africa's goals for its future, but there is much room for further incorporation of space systems and data. Providing a comprehensive overview of the role space is playing in achieving Africa's developmental aspirations, the book is of great interest to both students and professionals in fields such as space studies, international relations, governance, social and rural development and many others.      The Luck Charm Banda, Tito, 2018-03-07. Tomasi Manda, an intelligent boy whose rational mind rejects belief in witchcraft, does something that causes his mother and elder brother to fear that he might be bewitched. They decide to put protective medicine into his blood. But their problem is how to get Tomasi to accept the medicine, having once before failed to convince him to have such protection. However, when Tomasi passes his primary school examinations and is selected for a boarding secondary school away from home, the two approach him with the medicine disguised as a charm, something that would bring him good luck from the strangers among whom he will now be living. Tomasi initially rejects the offer, but when to his surprise he sees that this causes his mother great pain, he lets her insert into his blood the totally useless powder. Then certain things begin to happen to Tomasi which he is unable to explain; otherwise, he can't help thinking, are being caused by the potion his mother has put in his blood. Eventually, he becomes convinced that he now has a potent luck charm in his body and reaches the frightening conclusion that from now on his life will be run by this charm.
