Frank, 2017-11-09 This book is about some of the many Masters and Grandmasters of the FMA Filipino Martial Arts. Some are well known, others are relatively obscure, some are famous, others are known only by their skill, but they all have in common their love for the Filipino Martial Arts and their connection through training, friendship, heritage, or lineage with GM Bram Frank. Some are the heroes of the Philippines and the spirit of Arnis, like the late Professor Remy Presas, part of American martial art history with the FMA and JKD, like Guro Dan Inosanto, or like GM Bram Frank, a faithful practitioner and instructor of the arts. Their stories are told in pictures and with a bio of who they are and what they've done. Regardless of gender, these people give their lives, souls, and energy to the Filipino Martial Arts. This is the first in a series of volumes of these wonderful people. This is the first book written by a non-Filipino with a forward by a Filipino President, President Benigno Aquino III.

Mabuhay Filipino Fighting Arts Mark V. Wiley, 2000 African literature in the twentieth century has grown from the early poetry of Negritude to recent novels of magical realism. As novelists, poets, and playwrights testified to the unique qualities of their lives and societies, a new tradition began to emerge. Novels of testimony, novels of revolt, novels of struggle, followed by post-colonial writings filled with complexities and ambiguities, have created a literary tradition expressive of the African spirit, a tradition influenced by earlier African oral literature, by European writings, by changing social conditions, and increasingly by African writings themselves. Thresholds of Change in African Literature explores the emergence of this tradition and particularly the ways in which the emergent literature changed at each critical stage. Dekiti Tirsia Siradas
