under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4 0 license Generative Perspectives on Degrees Anastasiia Vyshnevskaya, Edoardo Cavirani, 2025-10-20 The volume collects papers by leading semanticists syntacticians and morphologists working on the notion of degree It aims at deepening our understanding of i the internal and external syntax of the standard clause ii the internal morphological structure of the comparative marker e g er in English iii different semantic implementations of the notion of degree iv the syntactic status and semantic contribution of standard markers and v the distinction between phrasal and clausal comparatives and their interaction with the process of comparative deletion The authors are raising a number of fundamental questions related to the nature of degrees and the way they are encoded in syntax and semantics Among them are What are degrees introduced by Are they primitives or sets What is the internal structure of comparative adjectives Is there a containment relation between the positive and the comparative forms Is the comparative always morphologically overt We believe that the answers to these questions provided by the selected authors will be a crucial component for a deeper understanding of degree and its formal modeling within the generative framework As such this volume represents a fundamental tool for intermediate and advanced researchers working on comparative and equative constructions comparative and superlative adjectives and adverbs standard markers diminutives and deadjectival verbs

Early Greek Relative Clauses Philomen Probert, 2015-01-29 Early Greek Relative Clauses contributes to an old debate currently enjoying a revival should we expect languages spoken a few thousand years ago such as Proto Indo European to be less well equipped than modern languages when it comes to subordinate clauses Early Greek relative clauses provide a test case for this problem Early Greek uses several kinds of relative clause but all these are usually thought to come from one or at most two prehistoric types In a new look at the evidence this book finds that a rich variety of relative clause types has been in place for a considerable time The reconstruction of prehistoric linguistic stages requires detailed work on the individual languages descending from them A substantial part of the book is therefore devoted to a new look at the relative clause systems found in a wide variety of early Greek texts It emerges that the same basic system is in use across all these texts Different kinds of relative clause predominate in different kinds of text however because relative clause syntax and semantics interact with the needs of different kinds of text Considering material as diverse as the Homeric poems laws inscribed in stone on the island of Crete and the philosophical prose of Heraclitus the discussion remains clear and straightforward as Probert considers the uses and histories of different relative clause types

Correlatives Cross-linguistically Anikó Klára Lipták, 2009 This volume brings together recent work in generative syntax on correlative relative constructions Greatly expanding on the Hindi oriented scope of previous studies it describes and analyzes correlative constructions in a range of languages such as Basque Dutch Hungarian Polish Sanskrit Serbo Croatian and Tibetan in comparison to correlativization in Hindi The articles zoom in on three areas of interest firstly the similarities and differences between correlatives and other wh and relative constructions secondly the derivation of correlative constructions and the position correlative clauses occupy in the host clause and thirdly the matching effects that characterize the pairings between relative phrases and demonstrative phrases The studies presented here will appeal to researchers and students with an interest in syntax in general and relativization strategies in particular The Syntax of Relativization Mark de Vries,2002 Manual of Oil and Gas Terms Howard R. Williams,Charles J. Meyers,2006 New England Journal of Education Thomas Williams Bicknell,Albert Edward Winship,Anson Wood Belding,1896 William and Mary Environmental Law and Policy Review ,2007 Journal of Education ,1896 The Standard ,1904 The Andhra Pradesh Co-operative Societies Manual Andhra Pradesh (India),1982 North western reporter. Second series. N.W. 2d. Cases argued and determined in the courts of Iowa, Michigan, Minnesota, Nebraska, North Dakota, South Dakota, Wisconsin ,1987 Japan Times.
