

STUDY SKILLS

MAKING AN EFFECTIVE PRESENTATION

1 4.8 Listen to five people talking about a memorable presentation they have heard. Match each speaker to the reason why the presentation was effective.

- The presenter delivered his message in a clear voice.
- The presenter used some effective techniques to express his idea.
- The presenter used memorable images in her slide presentation.
- The presenter quoted from a poem.
- The presenter told a story at the beginning of his talk.

2 Can you recall a particularly effective presentation? If so, why was it so impressive?

3a Rhetorical techniques Presentations can be persuasive or informative. If they are persuasive, presenters often use rhetorical techniques to make their presentations more effective. Look at the definition of a rhetorical device. Can you think of an example of one?

A rhetorical device is a technique which uses language to increase the persuasiveness of a piece of writing or speaking. It is often used to emphasise a point or to produce an emotional response in the reader or listener.

3b Match rhetorical techniques 1–11 with examples a–k. Sometimes there is more than one possible answer.

- Rhetorical questions (asking a question but not expecting an answer)
- Quotation
- Alliteration (repeating sounds at the beginning of words)
- Contrast
- Repetition
- Simile
- Tripling (listing or chunking points in sets of three)
- Imagery (metaphor)
- Hyperbole (using exaggerated language for effect)
- Anecdote (a short story based on your personal experience)
- A surprising fact, statistic or opinion

- The film Heaven's Gate was one of the biggest failures in history but some critics consider it a masterpiece.
- In Sleepless in Miami, he was like a man in a coma for most of the film.
- Why would anyone want to see the film when they can't relate to the characters?
- In the House* is a clever psychological comedy. It is François Ozon's best work to date.' Film critic.
- His performance was intelligent, intuitive and intense.
- Alfred Hitchcock's film Rear Window is undoubtedly the greatest film ever made.
- On the one hand, the film held your interest. On the other hand, the ending was disappointing.
- She had the smile of an angel, but the soul of the devil.
- It was a long film. It was a boring film. It was a film that shouldn't have been made.
- When I was in Paris, I met the director of the film in a café on the Left Bank. He told me ...
- He was the son of a millionaire. She was from a shanty town.

4 Work with a partner. You are going to watch a presentation on The Girl with the Dragon Tattoo at a university film society. Read this description of the film, then discuss the questions.

The niece of a powerful businessman disappeared forty years ago. A journalist, Mikael Blomkvist and his assistant, an anti-social young woman, Lisbeth Salander, are hired by the uncle to carry out an investigation.

- If you haven't seen the film, do you think you'd like to see it?
- If you have seen the film, did you enjoy it? Why? Why not?

5 6.8 Watch the presentation and answer the questions.

- What are Mikael and Lisbeth trying to find out in their investigation?
- Who is the more interesting character, Mikael or Lisbeth? Why?
- Why has the film been so successful?

6a Watch the presentation again and note some of the rhetorical techniques used by the presenter.

7 Choose a film you know well. Make notes on it, then make a five-minute presentation of the film to your group. Try to use rhetorical techniques from Exercise 3b.
