Language Migration And Identity Zane Goebel:

Language, Migration, and Identity Zane Goebel, 2010-07-29 While much scholarship has been devoted to the interplay between language identity and social relationships we know less about how this plays out interactionally in diverse transient settings Based on research in Indonesia this book examines how talk plays an important role in mediating social relations in two urban spaces where linguistic and cultural diversity is the norm and where distinctions between newcomers and old timers changes regularly How do people who do not share expectations about how they should behave build new expectations through participating in conversation Starting from a view of language society dynamics as enregisterment Zane Goebel uses interactional sociolinguistics and the ethnography of communication to explore how language is used in this contact setting to build and present identities expectations and social relations It will be welcomed by researchers and students working in the fields of linguistic anthropology sociolinguistics the anthropology of migration and Asian studies

Multilingualism and Pluricentricity John Hajek, Catrin Norrby, Heinz L. Kretzenbacher, Doris Schüpbach, 2023-11-20 This volume explores linguistic diversity and complexity in different urban contexts many of which have never been subject to significant sociolinguistic inquiry A novel mixture of cities of varying size from around the world is studied from megacities to smaller cities on the national periphery All chapters discuss either the multilingualism or the pluricentric aspect of the linguistic diversity in urban areas most focussing on one urban centre The book showcases multiple approaches ranging from a quantitative investigation based partly on census data to qualitative studies flowing for example from extensive ethnographic work or discourse analysis The diverse theoretical backgrounds and methodological approaches in the individual chapters are complemented by two chapters outlining the current trends and debates in the sociolinguistic research on urban multilingualism and pluricentricity and suggesting some possible directions for future investigations in this field The book thus provides a broad overview of sociolinguistic research of multilingual places and pluricentric languages

Style and Intersubjectivity in Youth Interaction Dwi Noverini Djenar, Michael Ewing, Howard Manns, 2018-02-19 This book examines how style and intersubjective meanings emerge through language use It is innovative in theoretical scope and empirical focus It brings together insights from discourse functional linguistics stylistics and conversation analysis to understand how language resources are used to enact stances in intersubjective space While there are numerous studies devoted to youth language the focus has been mainly on face to face interaction Other types of youth interaction particularly in mediated forms have received little attention This book draws on data from four different text types conversation e forums comics and teen fiction to highlight the multidirectional nature of style construction Indonesia provides a rich context for the study of style and intersubjectivity among youth In constructing style Indonesian urban youth have been moving away from conventions which emphasized hierarchy and uniformity toward new ways of connecting in intersubjective space This book analyzes how these new ways are realized in different text types This book makes a valuable addition to sociolinguistic literature on youth and language and an essential reading for those interested in Austronesian sociolinguistics Engaging Superdiversity Karel Arnaut, Martha Sif Karrebæk, Massimiliano Spotti, Jan Blommaert, 2016-12-09 This book is the fruition of five years work in exploring the idea of superdiversity The editors argue that sociolinguistic superdiversity could be a source of inspiration to a wide range of post structuralist post colonial and neo Marxist interdisciplinary research into the potential and the limits of human cultural creativity and societal renewal under conditions of increasing and complexifying global connectivity Through case studies of language practices in spaces understood as inherently translocal and multi layered classrooms and schools youth spaces mercantile spaces and nation states this book explores the relevance of superdiversity for the social and human sciences and positions it as a research perspective in sociolinguistics and beyond Multimodal Studies Kay O'Halloran, Bradley Smith, 2012-05-22 The present volume presents a range of works by an impressive international roster of contributors who both explore issues arising from the study of multimodality and explore the scope of this emerging field within specific domains of multimodal phenomena Contributors show that each individual work and works in general within multimodal studies represent a dialectic or complementarity between the exploration of issues of general significance to multimodal studies and the exploration of specific domains of multimodality Global Leadership Talk Zane Goebel, 2020 In Global Leadership Talk Zane Goebel examines global flows of ideologies about leadership and good governance how these ideologies are localized through a case study of Indonesia and how this dynamic factored into the changing political bureaucratic and market regimes in Indonesia at the beginning of the 21st century Language, Migration and Identity, 2016 Routledge Handbook of Contemporary Indonesia Robert W. Hefner, 2018-01-03 Few countries as culturally rich politically pivotal and naturally beautiful as Indonesia are as often misrepresented in global media and conversation Stretching 3 400 miles east to west along the equator Indonesia is the fourth most populous country in the world and home to more than four hundred ethnic groups and several major world religions This sprawling Southeast Asian nation is also the world s most populous Muslim majority country and the third largest democracy Although in recent years the country has experienced serious challenges with regard to religious harmony its trillion dollar economy is booming and its press and public sphere are among the most vibrant in Asia A land of cultural contrasts contests and contradictions this ever evolving country is today rising to even greater global prominence even as it redefines the terms of its national religious and civic identity The Routledge Handbook of Contemporary Indonesia offers an overview of the modern making and contemporary dynamics of culture society and politics in this powerful Asian nation It provides a comprehensive survey of key issues in Indonesian politics economics religion and society It is divided into six sections organized as follows Cultural Legacies and Political Junctures Contemporary Politics and Plurality Markets and Economic Cultures Muslims and Religious Plurality Gender and Sexuality Indonesia in an Age of Multiple Globalizations Bringing together original contributions by leading scholars of Indonesia in law political science history anthropology sociology religious studies and gender studies this Handbook provides an up to date interdisciplinary and academically rigorous exploration of Indonesia It will be of interest to students academics policymakers and others in search of reliable information on Indonesian politics economics religion and society in an accessible format Language George Melville Bolling, Bernard Bloch, 2010 Wacana journal of the humanities of Indonesia ,2018 Reimagining Rapport Zane Goebel, 2021 To do ethnography a researcher must have rapport with research subjects But what is rapport Ethnography and ethnographic methods have increasingly become a feature of social inquiry in general and sociolinguistics in particular and rapport is generally considered a prerequisite for fieldwork And yet unlike related terms such as communication and phatic communion this concept has remained largely unexamined Reimagining Rapport turns a critical eye to the use of the term rapport across disciplines The collection analyzes the very idea of rapport both exploring how it has been shaped by historical forces and actors within sociocultural anthropology and questioning its usefulness Rather than viewing the term as simply denoting a type of positive social relationship that needs to be formed between researcher and consultant before research can begin this book invites us to reimagine rapport theoretically methodologically and meta methodologically Zane Goebel and other leading sociolinguists challenge readers to think about how rapport has been constructed within these disciplines and ultimately to see rapport as an emergent co constructed social relationship that is actively built during situated multimodal encounters The contributors collectively examine the role of ideology and mediation in the construction of rapport and argue that reconceptualizing research subject relationships is essential for establishing more sophisticated ways of understanding interpreting and representing research context A valuable resource for scholars and students of sociolinguistics and linguistic anthropology as well as for others engaged in ethnographic fieldwork Reimagining Rapport is the first collection to provide an in depth investigation of this critically important but previously unexamined concept Linguistics and Language Behavior Abstracts ,2008-12

Jentera ,2013 Words in Motion Keith Foulcher, Mikihiro Moriyama, Manneke Budiman, 2012 Political changes since the fall of the Suharto regime in 1998 have had a significant impact on linguistic and discursive practices in Indonesia The language policy of the state has become less restrictive than in the past when Indonesian Bahasa Indonesia was vigorously promoted as one of the symbols of the unity of the country s diverse ethnic groups Monolingualism in public space has given way to more fluid and pluralistic language use and regional autonomy legislation enacted in 1999 has encouraged expressions of regional identities and aspirations opening up a space for the promotion and use of regional languages in the media education and the bureaucracy Concurrently technological development in particular widespread access to the internet has exposed Indonesian society much more directly than before to global flows of information giving rise to changes stemming in part from sources outside Indonesia but interpreted and shaped according to local conditions and socio cultural practices The meeting of these two vectors one generated internally and the other coming from exposure to global trends is producing a situation of diversity fluidity and change in language use and discursive practice in contemporary Indonesian society While contributors to this volume discuss Indonesian language expression at the national level a particular focus of the collection is on regional local and minority languages where problems associated with decentralization find their counterpart in the role that language plays in the workings of regional and national identity politics Abstracts of the Annual Meeting American Anthropological Association,2007 Language, Identity and Migration Vera Regan,Chloé Diskin,Jennifer Martyn,2015-11-18 This volume presents a collection of the latest scholarly research on language migration and identity It includes research conducted within both established and emerging methodological frameworks and explores a wide range of contexts and geographical locations from the language classroom to the migrant experience and from Ireland to Eritrea Language, Migration and Identity ,2017 Language in Immigrant America Dominika Baran,2017-10-12

Machine generated contents note Introduction 1 Whose America 2 The alien specter then and now 3 Hyphenated identity 4 Foreign accents and immigrant Englishes 5 Multilingual practices 6 Immigrant children and language 7 American becomings

Language, Space and Identity in Migration G. Liebscher,J. Dailey-O'Cain,2013-11-08 This book explores both theoretical and practical issues of language use in a migration context using data from a German urban immigrant community in Canada Through this transcontinental perspective the book makes a new contribution to the literature on both language and identity and language and globalization Language and Identity in Migration Contexts Vera Regan,Patricia Ronan,Evelyn Ziegler,2022 The contributions to this volume shed a new light on various central topics in the discourses on language migration and identity
