SUPERHIGHWAY presents a thorough and original contextualization of the rock art and archaeology of the Sydney Basin. By combining excavation results with rock art analysis it demonstrates that a true archaeology of rock art can provide insights into rock art image making in people's social and cultural lives. Based on a PhD dissertation this monograph is a significantly revised and updated study which draws forcefully on rich and new data from extensive recent research, much of it by McDonald herself. McDonald has developed a model that suggests that visual culture such as rock artmaking and its images and forms could be understood as a system of communication as a way of signaling group identifying behaviour. For the archaeologist of art, the anthropologist of art and those of us who try to think about past worlds this monograph is a must read. Modern Language Forum, 1924

The Human Brain Book Rita Carter, 2019-01-08 The Human Brain Book is a complete guide to the one organ in the body that makes each of us what we are: unique individuals. It combines the latest findings from the field of neuroscience with expert text and state-of-the-art illustrations and imaging techniques to provide an incomparable insight into every facet of the brain. Layer by layer it reveals the fascinating details of this remarkable structure, covering all the key anatomy and delving into the inner workings of the mind, unlocking its many mysteries and helping you to understand what's going on in those millions of little gray and white cells. Tricky concepts are illustrated and explained with clarity and precision as The Human Brain Book looks at how the brain sends messages to the rest of the body, how we think and feel, how we perform unconscious actions, for example breathing, explores the nature of genius, asks why we behave the way we do, explains how we see and hear things and how and why we dream. Physical and psychological disorders affecting the brain and nervous system are clearly illustrated and summarized in easy-to-understand terms. The encyclopædia of missions, ed. by E.M. Bliss Edwin Munsell Bliss, 1891

Constitutional Law in Belgium André Alen, David Haljan, Willem Verrijdt, 2020-09-22 Derived from the renowned multi-volume International Encyclopaedia of Laws, this very useful analysis of constitutional law in Belgium provides essential information on the country's sources of constitutional law, its form of government and its administrative structure. Lawyers who handle transnational matters will appreciate the clarifications of particular terminology and its application. Throughout the book, the treatment emphasizes the specific points at which constitutional law affects the interpretation of legal rules and procedure. Thorough coverage by a local expert fully describes the political system, the historical background, the role of treaties, legislation, jurisprudence and administrative regulations. The discussion of the form and structure of government outlines its legal status, the jurisdiction and workings of the central state organs, the subdivisions of the state, its decentralized authorities and concepts of citizenship. Special issues include the legal position of aliens, foreign relations, taxing and spending powers, emergency laws, the power of the military and the constitutional relationship between church and state. Details are presented in such a way that readers who are unfamiliar with specific terms and concepts in varying contexts will fully grasp their meaning and significance. Its succinct yet scholarly nature, as well as the practical quality of the information it provides, make this book a valuable time saving tool for both practising and academic jurists Lawyers representing parties with interests in Belgium will welcome this guide and academics and researchers will appreciate its value in the study of comparative constitutional law An Introduction to the Study of African Languages Carl Meinhof,1915 The American antiquarian and oriental journal ,1886 Language Sciences ,1991 A sketch of the Modern Languages of the East Indies Robert N. Cust,1878 Outline of a History of Protestant Missions from the Reformation to the Present Time Gustav Warneck,1901 A Handbook of Northern France William Morris Davis,1918 The Banner of Israel ,1893 Annual Report of the Board of Regents of the Smithsonian Institution Smithsonian Institution. Board of Regents,1872
