Conditions Ben Rampton,2021-10-19 This book demonstrates the power and distinctiveness of the contribution that sociolinguistics can make to our understanding of everyday communicative practice under changing social conditions It builds on the approaches developed by Gumperz and Hymes in the 1970s and 80s and it not only affirms their continuing relevance in analyses of the micropolitics of everyday talk in urban settings but also argues for their value in emergent efforts to chart the heavily securitised environments now developing around us Drawing on 10 years of collaborative work and ranging across disciplinary interdisciplinary and applied perspectives the book begins with guiding principles and methodology shifts to empirically driven arguments in urban sociolinguistics and concludes with studies of in securitised communication addressed to challenges ahead Unhealthy Language: Linguistic Investigations of Covid-19 Discourse

Justyna Robinson,Roberta Piazza ,Rodney Jones,2024-10-01 The proposed volume reflects on the Coronavirus pandemic as a still evolving phenomenon and captures critically its socially constructed dimension The papers by well established international contributors deal with a variety of themes that range from the different discourses of the first and second lockdown the comparative responses to Covid in different parts of the world in light of the relationship between language and culture and the reflection of who the actors are who talk and are talked about in relation to the pandemic This last theme in particular offers a wide variety of responses from politicians and health experts communiqu s to the voices of marginal individuals and groups like the refugees The overall questions the papers as a whole try to answer is whether the discourses of and around Covid are equalizing or inciting inequality whether they perpetuate existing structures of dominance and exclusion and if and how they contributed to language change The volume offers an opportunity to both discourse analysts and sociolinguists to cross paths and work together The variety of analytic approaches adopted in both linguistic fields from corpus assisted and computational approaches to survey and interview based studies guarantees a ground breaking interdisciplinary volume with contributions designed to include linguistic analysis at all levels including the plane of grammatical description lexis phonology and discourse analysis Language ,1926 Negation and Polarity:

Experimental Perspectives Pierre Larrivé,Chungmin Lee,2015-07-28 This volume offers insights on experimental and empirical research in theoretical linguistic issues of negation and polarity focusing on how negation is marked and how negative polarity is emphatic and how it interacts with double negation Metalinguistic negation and neg raising are also explored in the volume Leading specialists in the field present novel ideas by employing various experimental methods in felicity judgments eye tracking self paced readings prosody and ERP Particular attention is given to extensive crosslinguistic data from French Catalan and Korean along with analyses using semantic and pragmatic methods corpus linguistics diachronic perspectives and longitudinal acquisitional studies as well as signed and gestural negation Each contribution is situated with regards to major previous studies thereby offering readers insights on the current state of the art in research on negation and negative polarity highlighting how theory and data together contributes to the understanding of cognition and mind Linguistics and Language Behavior Abstracts ,2008 Linguistic Survey of India Linguistic Survey of India,1903 Alphabetical Finding List Princeton University.
